The One-World Government and the Web of Evil

By B.W. Alans

The incredibly intricate web of evil which is even now surrounding the globe is being revealed. Many of the intricacies of course cannot be traced. There are simply too many people, organizations and groups and other aspects involved. I will try here to cover some of the major connections, though certainly not all of them. It should be remembered that the conspiracy to establish a one-world Antichrist government is part of a long-range, complicated plan which has been and is being brought about under the supervision of the Evil One himself. Here then are some of the connections I have found which should explain and reveal some of the more destructive organizations (physically and spiritually) and how they interact with one another.

(1) THE BAHAI TEMPLE: Wilmette, Illinois. This is the spiritual "mecca" of the Baha'i movement, a movement which is heavily involved in the establishing of a one-world government, religion, economic system, etc. Created by the Persian Baha'u'llah, who claimed to be Jesus Christ reincarnated, the Baha'i movement has gained incredible influence all over the world. They were influential in the establishment of the League of Nations and the United Nations Charter. Literature on the Baha'is can be obtained from: Baha'i Distribution Service, 415 Linden Avenue, Wilmette, IL. 60091. Editorial offices for the Baha'i Magazine WORLD ORDER are located at Yale University, 20011 Yale Station, New Haven, CT. 06520. Yale Station also happens to be the address for the.....

(2) RUSSELL TRUST ASSOCIATION: P.O. Box 2138 Yale Station, New Haven, CT. 06520. "Russell Trust" is actually a front for a much more secretive group called THE ORDER, also known as the SKULL & BONES SOCIETY, a Yale Senior Society which has headquarters at the "Bones Temple" and on Deer Island in Alexandria Bay, St. Lawrence River, New York. According to the well-known researcher on economic and political control, Dr. Antony Sutton, THE ORDER (or "Brotherhood of Death") is one of the major centers for media, educational, political and financial control in America (see: THE ORDER - 4 vols., by Dr. Antony C. Sutton - Research Publication P.O. Box 39850, Phoenix, AZ. 85069). Vice President George Bush and McGeorge Bundy are just a couple one-worlders who were members of SKULL & BONES. THE ORDER was co-founded by the father of former president William Taft. The younger Taft was president of the.....

(3) UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION (now UNITARIAN CHURCH) of his time. The Unitarians also are pushing for one-world religion and one-world government, etc. According to Dr. Sutton, the Tafts had connections with, if not members of.....

(4) THE BAVARIAN ILLUMINATI of Germany. Strong evidence exists, according to

Sutton, that THE ORDER/SKULL & BONES had its roots in an occult society in Germany, most likely Adam Weishaupt's ORDER OF THE ILLUMINATI (see: THE ORDER, vol.4 and THE CONSPIRACY TRACKER, Issue #1). The Luciferian principles of Illuminism include the destruction of the effects of Christianity and the creation of a one-world government ruled over by a select group of technocratic-humanists who use occult deception as a means to bring about absolute control as an end in itself. The Illuminati have connection with several other occult groups like the Carbonari, Masons, Rosicrucians, Knights Templar, Jesuits, Theosophists, Zionists and many others. The Illuminati resurfaced after being suppressed as the.....

(5) LEAGUE OF JUST MEN (see: RISE AND POWER OF THE INTERNATIONAL BANKERS, by Rev. James Patrick - 900 46 Ave. - East Moline, IL). They hired Karl Marx to write the COMMUNIST MANIFESTO, the mother of Socialism, more commonly known as.....

(6) COMMUNISM: Communism has been responsible for the deaths of over 200,000,000 individuals since its inception. But in actuality, Communism is merely a front, or an instrument used by the Illuminati to wipe out the old order to make way for the new one or NEW WORLD ORDER. The Illuminati itself was fully successful in infiltrating.....

(7) WORLD FREEMASONRY: (see: FREEMASONRY AND THE ONE-WORLD GOVERNMENT, by Dr. John Coleman -Christian Vanguard, Box 426, Metarie, LA. 70004). Albert Pike, former Supreme Grand Master of World Masonry and his "sidekick" Giuseppi Mazzini were worshippers of Lucifer. Due to their influence, Freemason-Illuminati and other occult societies were instrumental in the growth and development of Communism, Nazism, Political Zionism, the Ku Klux Klan, the Mafia, and other anti-God movements which had their roots in the occult. Hundreds of other pseudo-religious cults exist, many of which had their roots in Masonic-related occultism, or are splinter groups of Freemasonry. L.Ron Hubbard for instance created Scientology from the occult teachings of O.T.O. Freemasonry (the Black Magic arm of the Illuminati, of which Hubbard was a member). This also includes the fastest-growing cult in the world.....

(8) MORMONISM: Joseph Smith, the founder of this cult was a Master Mason and involved in folk magic and other occult practices. Brigham Young and other early leaders of this cult were also Masons at the time they joined the Mormon Church. Such Masonic influence in the hierarchy of the cult exists to this day. Masonic occultism and teachings were incorporated into Mormonism at its early stage. In fact Smith created a secret society known as the YTFIF (Council of Fifty) whose main goal was the establishment of a one-world government to prepare the way for the return of Christ (or Antichrist?). Many splinter groups have grown out of this cult, like for instance one named the HALCYON ORDER OF THE ILLUMINATI. The YTFIF of today now uses the FREEMEN INSTITUTE as its front group. The present-day leader of Mormonism and right-wing extremist Ezra Taft Benson helped in the creation of the Freemen Institute. The institute is of a political nature and works closely with CAUSA International (a Unification Church or "Moonie" front group). (see: THE GODMAKERS, by Ed Decker and Dave Hunt - Harvest House Publishers, Eugene, Oregon 97402). The Freemen Institute publishes the FREEMEN DIGEST (Box 31776, Salt Lake City, Utah 84131), which has in the past printed articles favoring one-world government, interviews with such one-world organizations as the Alpine Institute, 10-European Common Market Headquarters, Trilateral Commission, Council on Foreign Relations, Bilderberg Group (this group and the T.C. use the Freemen Digest concerning their respective groups as "intro" literature for those writing to find out more about them), and others. Also interviews with World Plotters like Henry Kissinger and David Rockefller, whose family was very instrumental in the creation and growth of the.....

(9) FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD: The present F.R. director is Paul Volcker. Volcker is a member of what is perhaps the most secretive and powerful group in the world, referred to by some as the "Club of 7". This group is made up of some of the most influential and powerful international bankers in their respective parts of the world. Other members include: 2. Dr. Fritz Leutwiler, president of the.....

(10) BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS (or B.I.S.) in Basle, Switzerland and also president of the Swiss National Bank; 3. Karl Otto Pohl, president of the West

German Bundesbank; 4. Henry Wallich, governor of the U.S. Federal Reserve Bank; 5. Lamberto Dini of the Bank of Italy; 6. Harou Mayekawa of the Bank of Japan; and 7. Lord (Gordon) Richardson, the recently retired Governor of the Bank of England. His successor, Robin Leigh-Pemberton (present Governor) is not a member of the "Secret Seven", but may succeed Richardson in the future. These men meet in Basle Switzerland several times a year in secret to plan their strategy for world monetary control. The "Tower of Basle" is the BIS headquarters, and these seven men, through the BIS headquarters, control nearly all the transferable money in the world and over 60% of world trade. All Masonic incorporations (both for members & lodges) have been traced back to Basle, where they have been registered. Major drug companies have their control lines from Basle as well. The BIS is actually the "Bank of Last Resort" for the.....

(11) EUROPEAN COMMON MARKET Confederacy (the EEC). The "European Parliament" (of Basle) has as its ultimate aim the control of 400 million people in their planned "U.S. of Europe" (both East and West European countries as members). Much of this control will be established through a computer network of economic electronic funds transfer. It is no coincidence that the largest computer complex in the world is in the Monet building in Luxembourg. This is the successor to the giant one that some people still call "the beast" because of its size. It occupies three floors at the Common Market Administration Building in Brussels and has input capacity sufficient to register every person on earth. Dr. Patrick Fisher, Canadian Computer scientist says, "You and I are tied into this computer by one or more keys, our social security number, our driver's license, our birth certificate, our passport number and whatever credit cards we use. Every move you have made and every penny that you have paid to Internal Revenue each year is all on record." In May, 1975, Dr. Hendrick Edleman, Chief Analyst for the European Common Market announced in Brussels that a "computerized restoration plan was being formulated to deal with the aftermath of a world-wide crisis." The Beast (computer), he says, is self-programming and capable of making decisions without human help. The plan for its use involves not only computerizing items (through the familiar bar-codes) but also people. Dr. Edleman stated that all people are to receive a number that would be "invisibly and painlessly tattooed by a laser on the forehead or the back of the hand. He said that by the use of three 6-digit units (number) the entire population of the world could be issued a credit number. The "Beast" is also linked with a vast computer network in the U.S. All of the above is accurate fulfillment of the prophecy in Revelation (Chapter 13), including the number of "the Beast", "666", the "10 horns of the beast" (10-nation Common Market alliance) and the "7-headed dragon" ("Secret Seven"/"Club of 7"). According to prophecy, the anti-Christ will rise to power as ruler of a world government based in Rome. According to the.....

(12) TARA CENTER (90 University Place, New York, NY 10003), an occult group connected with the New Age (Humanist/Human Potential) Movement, Aquarian Movement, Theosophical Society, Rosicrucians, Masons, Wicca/Witchcraft, and other occult societies and cults, there are now apparently two individuals who are ready to come onto the world scene as "saviours" of mankind. One whom they call "Maitreya" who lives in a Hindu suburb in the south-east suburbs of London, and another whom they call "Jesus the Christ" who is now living in the suburbs of Rome, biding his time until the time comes when he can gain control of Rome (Vatican?). Are these the "False Prophet" and "Antichrist"? Some believe that the Antichrist will come on the scene as a saviour during a time of chaos, perhaps he will solve an Israeli-Arab conflict or rebuild the world after an economic collapse. According to "psychics" like Jeane Dixon, this so-called "saviour" was born on February 5, 1962 during an extremely rare once-in-every-2000-years planetary alignment, when 8 out of 9 planets were clustered in the sign of Aquarius (this was supposedly the beginning of the New-Agers' "Age of Aquarius"). Some believe that he will imitate Christ by beginning his "ministry" at age 30. If this date is correct, and this supposition as well, we should expect him to appear on the world scene in a big way around 1992. This would bring about the end of the "tribulation" sometime around 1999. The Tara Center has powerful connections with the.....

(13) UNITED NATIONS, which has long been singled out by patriots as a subversive

"Trojan Horse" designed to destroy America and fan the flames of Communism, Globalism, Humanism, etc. Despite the fact that the U.N. is a literal hotbed of Soviet spy activity, it is also the headquarters of much of today's world Satanic activity. Many of the world manipulators are members of.....

(14) LUCIS TRUST: (866 United Nations Plaza, New York, NY). Formerly known as LUCIFER PUBLISHING COMPANY, Lucis Trust at one time published a magazine called LUCIFER. This group had its roots in Theosophical occultism and other subversive occult societies. Lucis Trust and its sister organization "Planetary Initiative for the World We Choose" are coordinating most of the New Age Movement. The New Age Movement in itself believes in the establishment of a one-world government to prepare the way for the return of "Christ" (or is it, as stated in the "Mormon" section - the Anti-Christ?). They are also coordinating and promoting the appearance of "Maitreya" and "Jesus the Christ" (the latter of which is to ascend the throne of Peter, the Papal office, and become head of the "Christian (Catholic) Church. This is also prophesied in Revelation, that the Anti-Christ will reign from the 7-hilled city of the Vatican). One of the main promoters of the New Age is a man named Benjamin Creme, who has lectured widely all over the world, recruiting new members and laying the groundwork for the appearance of this so-called "saviour" who, the Bible says, will begin his deceptive reign by obtaining the governments by flatteries. After the first 3½ years of his reign, he will begin the greatest slaughter the world has ever known, against his enemies (i.e. Christians, Jews, and all those who refuse to worship him as God -- he will be completely possessed by the Evil One). Satan has sought to overthrow the throne of God since the beginning of the world, which is why he and the angels he deceived into following him fell to become the Devil and his angels (demons) - he used the same old lie to deceive Eve in the Garden of Eden, and has caused millions more in modern times to believe that they are gods or are on their way to becoming gods (which is the foundation of every occult system). THE LUCIS/LUCIFER TRUST address, by the way, just happens to be the EXACT SAME address of the Baha'i Administration Office! (866 UN Plaza). So it seems the circle is complete. Each of the secret cults and groups mentioned above of course have their own connections to others with similar goals, who in turn have their connections with still others. Since Lucis Trust is acknowledged as the central core of the New Age Movement, it no doubt has contact with hundreds or thousands of smaller Aquarian cults and groups as well as most of the more prominent figures in the Movement. According to Dr. John Coleman, many of the "insiders" in government and economic positions are members of Lucis Trust.

This is, as I have stated before, just a simple outline of some of the more powerful/major lines of World Control. It would be almost impossible to track down and chart every single subversive group, network, society, splinter group or each of the major cult organizations, especially since the overall movement is growing larger every day. I have attempted to show the reader what I believe are some of the major groups and show proofs of their interactions one with another. Other researchers, no doubt, have and will continue to do so, and through careful research add more and more connections to this dark, sinister puzzle. According to the Bible, these things must come to pass. If there are those who are still around when the Anti-Christ does take control, will there be any hope for them? I can only suggest that the reader seriously consider this, the only TRUE way to overcome the Anti-Christ. We can read this in Revelation 12:11: -- "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb (Jesus Christ), and by the power of their testimony; and they loved not their loves unto the death."

"God's Banker"

(From the National Catholic Reporter)

Michele Sindona, the jailed Sicilian financier, who had served as an adviser to the Vatican bank, died March 22 after drinking coffee laced with cyanide. The secretive tycoon had risen from peasant roots to become one of the world's most powerful bankers. His career was marked by controversy and intrigue, as he figured prominently in many of Italy's political and financial scandals.

Described by his former colleagues as a "snake charmer," Sindona was adept at cultivating the right connections. In the late 1950s, he met Giovanni Montini, then archbishop of Milan, whose respect for Sindona increased when the banker contributed $2.4 million to the Catholic church for an old people's home. Some years later, after Montini had become Pope Paul VI, he asked Sindona to manage the Vatican's huge financial portfolio.

When the Italian government threatened to rescind the Vatican's tax exempt privileges in 1969, demanding that it pay the same taxes as other property holders in Italy, Sindona was given a free hand to divest and diversify. He sold a large portion of the Vatican's Italian holdings and acquired several asset-rich companies previously owned by the church, including Societe Generale Immobiliare, a huge real estate consortium with properties on both sides of the Atlantic.

By the early 1970s, Sindona had reached the height of his power, lording over a fiscal kingdom that stretched from Rome to Hollywood. He sat on the boards of more than 50 corporations and controlled hundreds more through a convoluted maze of shell companies and trusts in Switzerland, Liechenstein and other tax-evadable redoubts. His partners included such influential allies as Archbishop Paul Marcinkus president of the Vatican bank, and David Kennedy, treasury secretary during the Nixon administration, who served as Sindona's goodwill ambassador to the U.S. financial community.

Sindona's monetary interests in the United States were represented by Mudge, Rose, Guthrie and Alexander, the law firm of John Mitchell, Nixon's attorney general. When Nixon was running for reelection in 1972, Sindona offered to make a $1 million contribution to his campaign, but the proposal was withdrawn when Nixon's team insisted the gift remain anonymous. Sindona OWNED (emphasis added) the Watergate Hotel at the time of the infamous break-in that led to Nixon's downfall.

"God's Banker," as Sindona was called because of his close relationship with the Vatican, proffered his services to powerful clients. He was a top financier for the international Mafia, laundering drug profits for the Gambino brothers and their Sicilian counterparts. At the same time, he functioned as a financial conduit for "black operations" undertaken by the CIA, passing funds, for example, to the Greek colonials before they mounted a successful coup in 1967. Sindona also channeled millions of CIA dollars to centrist and right-wing political parties in Italy, including the Christian Democrats. When the agency decided to auction the Rome Daily American (one of the CIA's media "assets"), Sindona picked up the tab.

During his heyday as a CIA operative, Sindona served as the paymaster for Propaganda Due (P-2), the most secretive lodge in Italian Freemasonry, led by Venerable Master Licio Gelli, a diehard Benito Mussolini Fascist. P-2 members have been implicated in bomb attacks by right-wing terrorists that culminated in the 1980 Bologna train station massacre, in which 80 people were killed and hundreds injured.

Sindona and the P-2 Lodge were also involved in several foiled coup attempts against the Italian government in the 1970s. During this period, Sindona's luck began to sour. Franklin National Bank, his major American acquisition, collapsed in October 1974, triggering a chain reaction of foreclosures until Sindona's empire lay in a shambles. It was the worst banking default in U.S. history, and when the dust finally settled, Sindona faced an assortment of federal charges in the U.S.

In August 1979, shortly before he was to stand trial in New York in connection with the looting of Franklin National Bank, Sindona mysteriously disappeared. He later admitted to the FBI that he had faked his own kidnapping with the help of U.S. crime boss John Gambino. During his three months underground, Sindona returned to Italy to gather documents that were damaging to nearly everyone with whom he had done business. His files allegedly contained the names of more than 500 prominent Italian industrialists and politicians who had used his banks to illegally move money out of the country. He also collected records of his dealings with U.S. business representatives and the CIA.

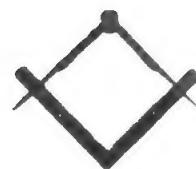

In October 1979, the elusive Sicilian reappeared in New York, confident he would be exonerated in court. But his hopes were dashed when his former partner, Marcinkus, and two other Vatican officials declined to testify as character witnesses on his behalf. Convicted on 68 counts of fraud, perjury and misappropriation of bank funds, Sindona was sentenced to a 25-year jail term.

In September 1984, Sindona was extradited to Italy, where he faced additional charges for banking violations, drug trafficking and murder. He went through two trials in Milan and was found guilty of having paid $40,000 to contract the slaying of Giorgio Ambrosoli, the lawyer who had been appointed to liquidate Sindona's banks. Ambrosoli was shot dead in front of his Milan home July 12, 1979.

Sindona died four days after an Italian court sentenced him to life imprisonment for the Ambrosoli killing. Italian officials are not sure whether Sindona poisoned himself or was murdered. Some attributed his death to the "sottogoverno" a popular reference to the "underground government" many Italians believe run their country. Sindona was quoted as saying before he died, "They are afraid I could reveal some very delicate information that they don't want divulged."

(Thanks to Michael A. Hoffman II for supplying us with this article.)

Ku Klux Klan) decreed in 1874: --

"No Brother Mason of the official rites who is not a Jew, can demand entrance into a Jewish lodge, no matter what may be his Masonic rank."

This means that while Christians, Hindus, Muslims, Atheists, Asians and Europeans can enter one another's lodges, none of them can visit Jewish lodges, though Jews are entitled to visit any lodge they wish to. Why should this be? Do they have something to hide?

It has been claimed that B'Nai B'Rith is not a Masonic organization and that the proof of this lies in their allowing women to join, Masonry being exclusively male. This is untrue. Several branches of the Order have female lodges, while B'Nai B'Rith operates Sister Chapters which remain on the fringe of the organization.

The Super Masonry of B'nai B'rith

By the Political Research Association
(London, England)

B'Nai B'Rith meaning Sons of the Covenant, is probably the most powerful of the world's different forms of Freemasonry for it is exclusively Jewish. It was founded in 1843 and rapidly established a sizeable membership in the USA, though today it is organized throughout the world.

In 1913, it decided that it needed a public face to help in its program of undermining American power; the result was the founding of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL). American patriots will be more than aware of the baneful influence of this body which seeks to defame anybody opposed to Zionist-Jewish domination. It organizes press boycotts of individuals and groups, it pressures publishing firms into withdrawing books it finds unacceptable and it puts the finger on personalities who "step out of line".

That B'Nai B'Rith is powerful is further shown by the fact that it has certain, unique Masonic privileges. Albert Pike (Sovereign Pontiff of Universal Freemasonry, Illuminist, Official of the

B'Nai B'rith also afflicts Britain in a very real way. On June 23, 1929, Emanuel Shinwell MP, Financial Secretary to the War Office, spoke at the annual B'Nai B'Rith dinner: --

"The Jews in the House of Commons, whatever their political opinions may be, will always stand in that assembly for the rights of the Jewish community. It has been said that they must emphasize the fact of their Judaism BEFORE the fact of Citizenship."

Freemasonry is a creed that puts World Government before Britain, but to have a world authority you need a race not bound by loyalty to Nation-states; in other words, an International race. The Jews seem to regard themselves as that race, for they proclaim that their loyalty is to World Jewry and NOT to Britain or any other state where they are ostensibly citizens. Such proclamations constitute Treason, so why does the Law remain a dead letter?

The Sect of the Seven

By R. Gordon-Canning

(From The Patriot - Sept. 26, 1946.)

In THE PATRIOT of 12 September, we read the following: -- "There are many people who, though fully realizing the menace of Communism, fail to recognize its sister branches in the occult world and among the secret societies.

"Numerous historic works written by researchers have discovered that the disruptive forces which threaten our civilization today were the real cause of the fall of other cultures before our time, and it is almost possible to trace their sinister work to the time of Creation, when Satan in his lust for power set out on his work of destroying the work of the Almighty.

"Some revealing facts can be gathered from a study of history by Christopher Dawson in "The Making of Europe"; especially in the chapter devoted to Islam, where he has the following: --'The power of the religion of Mohammed rests above all on its absolute simplicity...It rests on the principle of the absolute unity and omnipotence of God and of the all-importance of the life to come.'

"This, and its sweeping success over humanity in the East, promptly brought counter action from the side of Evil, and we see almost at once, as Mr. Dawson puts it, the creation of a new sect of Ismailia. Mr. Dawson says: --'The Sect of the Seven, which based itself on the claims of the descendants of the seventh Isman - Jafar as Sadiq. The founder of this sect, Abdullah Ibn Mamun, seems to have conceived the idea of combining all the forces of intellectual and social disaffection in a vast subterranean conspiracy against the Abbasid Khalifate and Orthodox Islam. Its doctrines and its methods of propaganda are known chiefly from the reports of its adversaries...Like the Gnostics, the Ismailians taught the evolution of the universe from the unknown and inaccessible Godhead (the god of the Jewish Cabala --Editor) through a hierarchy of successive emanations. These are seven in number and correspond to the seven aeons or cycles of the temporal process in each of which the Universal Intelligence manifests itself anew in human form. These seven manifestations are the seven speakers (Natiq) Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus, Mohammed and the Ismaili Messiah -- the Master of the Age.. only when the disciple had given himself up body and soul to the Imam and to his representative - the da'i or missionary -- was the secret doctrine revealed.'

"Similar methods are now adopted in secret societies, which seems to explain the insistence of such organizations for remaining secret. The forces behind them, even in those days, are referred to as "Reds", and in a further passage we read: 'No less devoted to the Fatimid cause was the famous Hasan-i-Sabbah, who captured the rock fortress of Alamut in Persia in 1090 and organized the 'New Propaganda' of methodical assassination in the name of Mustansir's elder son, Nizar.' "

Such is the extract from The Patriot of September 12, 1946. We are particularly interested in the reference to the heterodoxical sect of Ismailiyah or "Seveners," in which this number, "as in the Pythagorean system of old, the number seven assumed sacred importance."

In an allusion to this sect the writer obviously did not have at his elbow Professor Hitti's classic, "History of the Arabs." In pages 442-448 the author describes the greater detail of the Satanic influence of this sect over the Islamic empire from IX to XIII Centuries. He says: "The Ismailites organized one of the most subtle and effective means of politico-religious propaganda that the world of Islam ever experienced." (P.443) And: "Initiation is said to have involved seven to nine graded stages which recall modern Freemasonry." (P.443)

Abdullah, son of an Arab oculist of obscure origin, founded the Karmatians. He began by making the Muslim sceptical and then, by increasing the enmity between Arab and Persian, destroyed the legitimate Caliphate and raised up the Fatimid dynasty in Tunis and Egypt.

Professor Hitti continues on this sect with: "Fundamentally the organization was a secret society based upon a system of Communism." The successor of Abdullah-Karmat, "even went so far as to prescribe community of wives and property."

Emphasis was placed upon equality and tolerance. Trade guilds were established and this, in the opinion of Massignon, was the origin of European guilds and Freemasonry. (P445) Hitti then states: "The Karmatian movement with its Communistic revolutionary tendencies, developed into a most malicious growth in the body politic of Islam."

When the Karmatians were exterminated, the system passed to the Fatimids of Egypt and later to the famous "Assassins of Alamut," (believed by some to be secretly Jewish--Editor), of Hasan-ibn-as-Sabbah. "This sect, in pursuit of its aims made free and treacherous use of the dagger, reducing assassination to a fine art."

The hypnotized followers were ready to dare all, and many famous men, kings, statesmen and learned men fell victims to their daggers.

When one of the most illustrious men in the history of Islam, Nizam-al Mulk, was assassinated (A.D.1029) "the whole world of Islam was plunged into terror." (P.447)

Sultan Baibars (A.D.1260) of Egypt wiped out the sect --almost! For today , the remnants are known as Khojas or Mawlas. About 200,000 in number, in Bombay and East Africa. Is it surprising to find the Aga Khan as the head of this sect? For, is not the Aga Khan represented to the public as a great leader of Islam? When he represents only 1/1000th part of the Muslimin at the most. The Islamic world in its vast majority regards him with disfavor. Yet the British government invariably employ him as an agent in its approach to the Muslim world.

Is there then, here also some occult link of secret Freemasonry?

Research on the Number 23

Item #1 - Letter from Michael A. Hoffman II.

Loren Coleman's March 16 letter produces the following: There has been insufficient attention given to the role of novelist and philosopher William Seward Burroughs in the development of attention on 23, among Forteans & others. 23's publicist, R.A.Wilson mentions Burroughs in passing. In fact, Burroughs has written extensively on 23 and a greater familiarity with his statements (to be found in books such as "Ah Pook Is Here", "The Job", "The Last Words of Dutch Schultz" by the author and "William Burroughs: The Algebra of Need" by Eric Mottram; these are available -- the first from John calder in London or Riverrun Press, NY but if you run into difficylties City Lights Books, 261 Columbus, San Francisco, CA. 94133) is encouraged.

There is a strong Fayette connection in the Burroughs link to 23. It's my hunch (and so far that's all it is) that Burroughs rec'd intimations of the significance of 23 from LaFayette Ron Hubbard (the late?) founder of Scientology. During the period when some of Burroughs's best writing on 23 was produced he himself was an enthusiastic Scientologist, tho' he later renounced it in his "Ali's Smile/Naked Scientology".

Burroughs is named after his grandfather who resided in Auburn, NY. I surmise that the grandfather in turn was named after Auburn's most illustrious citizen, William Seward, sec'y of state under Lincoln. In Seward we find at least two Fayette connections including an especially strong one leading to the possible primogenitor himself, the Marquis de LaFayette (see Jim Brandon's "Rebirth of Pan"). Seward was attacked by the "Lincoln conspirators" in a house adjacent to LaFayette Park in D.C. Tho' a leader in the Anti-Mason party, Seward met with LaFayette in France in 1833. Seward has another link to the "insane side" of things in that he is sometimes credited with instituting the insanity defense in criminal law as an attorney, but this is disputed. Auburn, NY is the site of the first execution by electrocution at the prison of the same name and many subsequent ones, including the anarchist (?) assassination of McKinley. Mormon honcho Brigham Young did "masonry work" as a teenager in Seward's house. Also figuring in these calculations is the fact that grandfather William Seward Burroughs was the inventor of the modern adding machine. A "Rev. Burroughs" was executed for witchcraft in the 18th century.

Taking a group of liberated boys (as portrayed in his "The Wild Boys"), Burroughs has "fantasized" about an "Academy 23" where the lads are trained in virology, linguistics, general semantics, assassination techniques and Reichian psychology, as part of a revolution against the logos, the non-pictorial, syllabic language that Burroughs claims is partly responsible for the maintenance of connections between global and cosmic war along Miltonic lines. Burroughs describes 23 as a virus. Burroughs is a student of Hassan i Sabbah (cf. "The Book of Breathing"). As a result of Burroughs influence a number of avant-garde rock musicians are using 23 including the bands 23 Skidoo, Psychic TV and now, Johnny 23 (see article after this letter--Editor). Burroughs sees his Academy 23 graduates as Paniskoi (little god Pans) and has written of a "PANic Communications Act" in connection with destroying the current establishment. And of course the thaumaturgic instrument in Mozart's opera is a symbol of Pan (The Magic Flute opera, that is). If Academy 23 exists outside of art, rock or novels (and I emphasize "if"), its graduates would be prime suspects in the Palme hit. (Along with just about every other Tom, Dick and Hob, "Croatian terrorists may have been behind the assassination of Olaf Palme" according to the Crescent-International of Ontario on April 1, 1986. On Feb. 23, a Croatian immolated himself in Toronto in protest against extradition of "Nazi" Artukovic. The claim of a neo-Nazi involvement in Palme's death recalls the fake photo of John Hinckley in Nazi uniform nationally circulated following the shooting of Reagan and later admitted to have been "mistaken".) In a less literal sense, how much of Burroughs writings influence assassins and revolutionaries in a kind of morphogenetic transmission as discussed by R. Sheldrake, "A New Science of Life?". (For the Swedish connection cf. Fortean Times #45 P.19).

Item #2 - Article from East Village Eye, March 1986.

Superfly, William Burroughs, John Huston. These are just some of a man's influences. His future plans include a mock book burning, or if he really gets his wish, a sizzling at the stake. If Lenin was right (Vladimir, not John) that ideas are weapons, then Jonathan Prosser a.k.a. Johnny 23 a.k.a. The Hood is a virtual course in musical subversion. His live act which is as mesmerizing as it is short, features the silhouetted Johnny in kerchief and uniform, writhing to film and tape loops of assorted literary dementia. In these days of the jaded audience, his track acts attacks the brain and feet. His aim, he states, is clearly to move both,

"I'm a mercenary", he says. "I've been in bands with other people but I prefer performing alone. You have more power. An ex-member of East Village tombstone blasters, the Swans and the Radium Boys, Johnny says he discovered the power of going solo oddly enough at poetry readings. "Everyone would get up there and read about flowers and trees, then I'd come along with a beat box and just scream over it. Everybody hated it but I got what I wanted. I got heard."

Johnny was able to transfer this logic to the dancefloor when he hooked up with producer Ivan Ivan to create "Cooler than Thou", a Jem release. The single was a dark and provocative kick at the fine art of posing, and was easily one of the most brutal dance mixes of the year. He plans to follow up the effort with a new cut this spring called "Book of the Law". (EDITOR: Book of the Law was also the title of the book transmitted to Aleister Crowley by what he claimed was an extraterrestrial intelligence named Aiwass. See CT #1.)

"More characters are coming", he says, carrying the banner in the Foetus tradition. He and Prosser are good friends. "We both like to create characters. Johnny 23 is taken from Burroughs. He's a virus. I like the idea of being on stage pulling the strings. I like the idea of spreading viruses." Prosser takes his disease to Chicago and points West, and will head back to New York in April for a gig at the World.

Item #3 - Letter from Loren Coleman, April 10, 1986.

Michael Anthony Hoffman raised many good points in his recent letter, especially regarding William Seward Burroughs, and William Seward.

What I find interesting about William Seward, further, is his connections to the Anti-Masonic movement in the 1820's through 1840's. Seward, Horace Greeley, and Thurlow Weed were the major political powers behind the Lincoln candidacy.

Thurlow Weed was an interesting figure/worth some time researching. He is the forgotten part of the triad mentioned above. A couple tidbits about the guy: (1) he is involved in exhuming "Morgan's" body; and (2) as a youth he went on a gold digging excursion in the moonlight, when "the throat of a black cat was cut, and the precise spot was indicated by the direction the blood spurted," ("Autobiography of Thurlow Weed", Boston: Harriet A. Weed, ed., 1884, page 7).

(1) HALLEY'S COMET. (From the Minden, LA. Press-Herald, April 7, 1986.)

ATLANTA (UPI) - The latest appearance of Halley's Comet, the "evil star" herald of ancient calamities, coincided with last year's wave of teenage suicides and airline crashes, a researcher says. Loren Coleman, director of a suicide prevention project at the University of Southern Maine in Portland, said an analysis of suicides or epidemics and the appearance of comets through the years "demonstrates some interesting correlations." When Halley's comet appeared in 1910, "Sigmund Freud addressed a conference in Vienna on 'Suicide, Particularly Among Children,'" Coleman said. "In 1985, the year of the reappearance of Halley's comet, the United States held its first National Conference on Youth Suicide in Washington, D.C." The year 1985 also marked the deadliest year for civil aviation, with an estimated 2,063 people killed in plane crashes worldwide, he noted. Coleman outlined a chronological "connection" between the appearance of comets and tragedies in a research paper submitted at the 19th annual meeting of the American Association of Suicidology, which ended Sunday. Halley's comet, which appears every 76 years, returned last fall and will be visible until the end of April. It is expected to be at its brightest April 11. Coleman noted the word "disaster" evolved from "evil star" or "bad star" --as comets were often termed. "Halley's comet appeared like a 'sword' over Jerusalem in 66 A.D., foreshadowing for the city's residents their destruction at the hands of the Romans. Many records of mass suicides are associated with this time," Coleman said in his paper. "Comets and mass suicides are also associated for 1506, 1528-9, 1582, 1666, 1823 and 1910," he said.

(2) KIDNAP ATTEMPTS. E. Edwin Austin reports: There have been weird kidnap attempts in four states. In Missouri, two women walked up to a parent, called them and their children by name and said "We got a child abuse complaint. Mrs. so-and-so (Local Children's Protective Services supervisor) sent us out to pick up your kids and take 'em to the hospital for an examination." Didn't work. Identical incidents occurred over the next few weeks in Topeka, Kansas, Omaha, Lincoln and O'Neill, Nebraska. No children lost.

In Broken Bow, Nebraska, one woman in an auto did the same thing to two boys away from their parents on the street. They ran like scalded cats. The day after Broken Bow, a woman walked into a hospital in Denver, wearing a white uniform, and told a new mother "I gotta take your baby to be weighed." The child has not been seen since. FBI, whale nine yards. Three possible motives. Nut wants a baby of her own. Human sacrifice. Baby Sales. Law enforcement officials are about evenly divided. Same for me. The disturbing part -- the reason for this letter -- is the kidnapper's use of the names of the parents, their children and the local Children's Protective Services supervisor. There is obviously something unusual here. Can any of CT's readers give me information about similar incidents elsewhere? (Mr. Austin can be contacted at 4623 E. Washington, Apt. 20, Orange, CA. 92669.

(3) ANOTHER CULT. Another reader wants info on a cult that uses color-coded clothing for identification. They wear red ties and white shirts and blue blazers. They are supposed to be out to overthrow the country. Write CT, Box 596, Paterson, NJ 07524 if you know anything about them.

The Truth About Those PEACE SYMBOLS

MAIN LINE for Action

4-A Thurs., June 4, 1970 THE NEWS AMERICAN

I've talked with over a dozen peace marchers. Half of them don't know what that peace symbol's meaning is and I've gotten different answers from the other half. What is the true meaning of symbol?

—M. R.

The crowfooted, broken-inverted cross has been described as the sign of the anti-Christ. It is a Satanic emblem of medieval times used to actually brand Jews on the arm or forehead to indicate they were not true believers.

This emblem was also used as a sign of the devil and was painted over doors of those who were to be put to death. In later times it was imprinted on tombstones to indicate the burial ground of evil spirits or those believed to be witches.

It was first used as a peace symbol in 1959 at the Easter Peace Walk in England. Originally the designers tried to incorporate the N and D of nuclear disarmament but settled on the inverted cross enclosed in a ring.

The Crow's foot, or witch's foot

This illustration is taken from The Book of Signs by Rudolf Koch, p. 83. The upright fork designates man; inverted it stands for death. The symbol was used in the Middle Ages as an insignia for Satan.

Michael Wurmbrand, formerly of Rumania, claims, "The symbol of the Communist peace is a very well-known symbol. It was called the witch's foot in the Middle Ages, and it was a common symbol of the devil, with the cross reversed and broken."

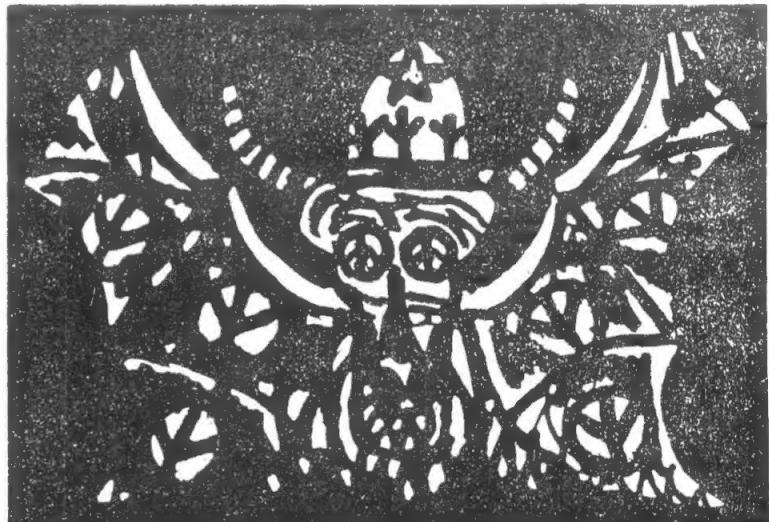

This design, incorporating the Christian symbol of the Holy Spirit (the Paraclete) and the Satanic "peace" symbol beneath a Communist clenched-fist salute, is now used nationwide by revolutionary Marxists. Former top Communist Bella Dodd, revealed in 1966 that the Christian dove was adopted for the use of the Comrades by the Spanish Communist Pablo Picasso, who used it in his propaganda paintings.

A Communist Guardian announcement of the Reds' "Fall Offensive" uses two of their favorite insignias.

Cartoon by Robert Murphy, reprinted from the Manchester Union Leader.

The original of this Sixteenth Century woodcut of the hated Satan by John Knox, founder of Scot Presbyterianism, is in the Museum of Witchcraft at Bayonne, France. The symbols representing the eyes of the Demon are exactly like the "peace" symbol being promoted by the Reds. Used in the Black Mass of Satanists during the Middle Ages, this sign was cited by Knox as "the mark of the beast."

Radical use Reds' fist salute and "peace" sign.

Communist "peace" symbol and clenched-fist salute are combined at Red rally for Communist Black Panthers. In this case, the Communist fist shown rising out of the sign of the anti-Christ is entirely appropriate.

Communist Militant emphasizes Red symbols. This photograph was also featured prominently in the Communist Daily World and Guardian.

Earth Day (Lenin's birthday) symbol desecrates the American flag. This mutant is also insignia of the subversive Women Strike for Peace.

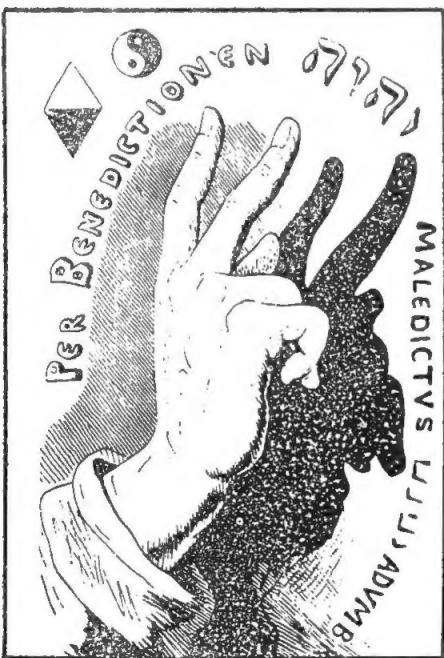

This photo, from the front page of the Communist Daily World, features "peace" symbols on boxes of pro-Vietcong petitions stacked near the White House after Vietnik rally in Washington.

The centuries-old illustration at left, from Maurice Bessy's Pictorial History Of Magic And The Supernatural, depicts the ancient gesture of benediction, the shadow of which represents Satan. That shadow, according to Satanists, is the symbol of malediction. A modernized use of this sign appeared in the Daily World of October 18, 1969, as the insignia (above) of the Communist GIs & Vets for Peace.

Stewart Meacham, Co-Chairman of Reds' New Mobilization Committee, discusses plans for the Communists' "Fall Offensive" before official poster of "New Mobe." Photo was run in the Communist Guardian to promote the "V" insignia.
